SABRI MOHAMADI

サブリ・モハマディ

PRODUCER · GAME DESIGNER aka Hikali

Based in Tokyo · Available now

PROFILE

I was Global Associate Producer at Bandai Namco Entertainment Europe on the Little Nightmares franchise, in the main team that drove its worldwide strategy. Three games shipped on console, PC, VR and mobile. Today I'm a freelance Producer and Game Designer and I teach from first-year Bachelor to second-year Master. I started out as a programmer, I still code my own prototypes, and I live in Tokyo, where I also make videos about games and Japan as Hikali.

EXPERIENCE

Freelance Producer & Game Designer · Hikalith

JAN 2025 – NOW

Lyon, then Tokyo

- Studios bring me in to reinforce production. I coordinate, report and set up their project tracking on Jira, SharePoint and Teams.
- I support their game design on prototypes, mechanics and player experience, and advise them on game accessibility.
- I'm producer and business developer for the Hiqub collective.
- I teach Producing, Game Design, Level Design and programming fundamentals, from Bachelor 1 to Master 2, at Ynov Campus Lyon and Ynov Connect, and consult for the school.

Global Associate Producer · Bandai Namco Entertainment Europe

JUL 2023 – JUL 2025

Lyon, France · Little Nightmares franchise

- Member of the main team that drove the franchise's worldwide strategy on Little Nightmares III, Little Nightmares VR: Altered Echoes and the mobile port.
- Worked with Supermassive Games, Iconik and Playdigious, ports with Engine Software, plus playtest and service vendors.
- Planned milestones, tracked deliveries and kept QA, analytics, localisation, marketing and communication aligned, then reported to stakeholders and IP holders.
- Rebuilt our tracking on Jira, Confluence and SharePoint and automated a weekly report that took a full day.
- Sat on Bandai Namco Europe's accessibility task force, benchmarked the industry and wrote the team's must-have accessibility document. Turned an accessibility audit into a prioritised backlog that shipped.

Production Lead, games incubator · Nightmare Games (Ynov)

2022 – 2023 · 6 MO

- Ran the schedule for six game projects and about forty people and coached their leads, some of whom later became my first clients.

Earlier · work-study during my degrees

2020 – 2022

- Consultant & Trainer at Inov'Xper (2021–22), automating client processes with Microsoft 365 and Power Automate. Developer at Boa Concept (2020–21), building UI and internal tools.

OWN PROJECTS

NaJiKi (2024, horror, Unity, on hold), which I designed and produced. It went through several pitch competitions and won funding support on Maghla's show. MyHome? (2020, Bachelor year 3, escape game, Unreal) as technical game designer, plus the jam games The Last Supermarket Before Apocalypse and Le voyage de Mochihiro.
