REALITY Studios recruitment team, FIRST STAGE PRODUCTION EN, Tokyo — October 2026

Application: Overseas VTuber Talent Manager, FIRST STAGE PRODUCTION EN

Dear REALITY Studios team,

My name is Sabri Mohamadi. I am a Producer based in Tokyo, and from 2023 to 2025 I was Global Associate Producer on the Little Nightmares franchise at Bandai Namco Entertainment Europe. I am writing to apply for the Overseas VTuber Talent Manager position for FIRST STAGE PRODUCTION EN.

I know the creator side of this work from my own channel. On YouTube, as I am Hika, I write, film and edit every video alone, and I stream on Twitch. I know how much energy goes into a schedule of streams and uploads, and how easily a creator ends up doing production, promotion and admin on top of the show itself. A good manager takes that weight off, and that is the part of the role I would like to do.

At Bandai Namco my job was to keep several partners moving toward the same dates: Supermassive Games on Little Nightmares III, Iconik on the VR game and Playdigious on the mobile port in the run-up to launch. I tracked milestones, collected assets and feedback, and kept QA, localisation, marketing and communications aligned. I also handled requests for demos and assets from Bandai Namco Entertainment in Japan, which taught me to bridge a Japanese headquarters and teams abroad.

The posting asks for talent management experience. I do not have it under that title. The closest is my teaching: as a Visiting Lecturer at Ynov Campus I follow students through their projects, and at the Nightmare Games incubator I coached the leads of six student teams.

English is my working language and French my native language. The posting asks for business-level Japanese: I understand most spoken Japanese and hold conversations with ease, but reading and writing are still behind, and I take classes in Tokyo to close that gap.

I am available now. My portfolio is at sabri-mohamadi.fr. Thank you for your time and consideration.

Kind regards,

Sabri Mohamadi
