Fanatics Collectibles / Topps KK recruitment team, Tokyo — October 2026

Application: Associate Product Manager, Topps Trading Cards (Tokyo)

Dear Topps team,

My name is Sabri Mohamadi. I am a Producer based in Tokyo, and from 2023 to 2025 I was Global Associate Producer on the Little Nightmares franchise at Bandai Namco Entertainment Europe. I am writing to apply for the Associate Product Manager position on Topps Trading Cards in Tokyo.

Bandai Namco owns the Little Nightmares IP, and part of my job was reporting to the IP holder and answering their requests for demos, assets and feedback. I learned to plan around approvals: ask early, give reviewers what they need, and keep a release date safe when feedback comes in late. That is a large part of the work you describe with licensors.

I worked on three games in parallel with external studios: Supermassive Games on Little Nightmares III, Iconik on the VR game and Playdigious on the mobile port in the run-up to launch. I kept a shared release calendar, reviewed every milestone delivery, checked content before it reached players and reported progress to stakeholders. I also rebuilt our tracking on Jira, Confluence and SharePoint and automated a weekly report that took a full day.

The posting asks for product development experience in collectibles, and I do not have it. What I can bring is the discipline of shipping licensed products on fixed dates with many partners, and the habit of learning a new product line quickly. I am ready to learn the trading card side from your team.

French is my native language and English my working language. I understand most spoken Japanese and hold everyday conversations; reading and writing are still behind, and I take classes in Tokyo to close that gap.

I am available now. My portfolio is at sabri-mohamadi.fr. Thank you for your time and consideration.

Kind regards,

Sabri Mohamadi
